HELPING CHILDREN AND YOUTH DISCOVER THEIR INNER NATURE

Hey YOUTH! Join EYA's board of directors & help us design our programs!

We're looking for two youth (ages 16-25) to join EYA's Board of Directors. As a Youth Board Member, you will:

- Participate in regular board meetings (every 6 weeks)
- Participate in meetings for the board's Program Innovation Committee (every 1-2 months)
- Share your experiences as a youth living in Metro Vancouver
- Provide advice on the programs and services you'd like to see for youth in the community
- Share your ideas for improving and growing EYA's programs
- Help us reach and engage more local youth from diverse backgrounds

Board & committee meetings take place from 6:00pm - 8:30pm at EYA's office in Chinatown (just a few blocks from Strathcona Community Gardens and a 10 minute walk from the Main St-Science World SKYtrain Station).

This is a volunteer (unpaid) position, but we can provide transit tickets and/or reimburse for local travel costs. Snacks are provided at the board meetings.

We encourage applications from youth who have participated in EYA programs!

How to Apply

Email a short resume and letter telling us about your experience with EYA and why you're interested in the position to emily@eya.ca

About EYA

EYA is a charity based in Vancouver. We engage local youth in hands-on nature stewardship experience in Eastside schools and inner city green spaces, including Strathcona Community Gardens. Our mission is to connect young people with nature, community, and skills to benefit wellbeing and inspire environmental stewardship. See our website for more info: www.eya.ca.
