Gift in Will to Environmental Youth Alliance

A gift in will to the Environmental Youth Alliance EYA will support youth facing barriers to become environmental stewards and lead a transition to a more just, sustainable world.

Types of gifts in will:

- Gift of Residue: Give a percentage of the residue (total assets less taxes, debts & cash bequests) of your estate; and
- Specific Bequest: Set aside a certain dollar amount or a specific piece of property such as an investment account or a particular stock.

What to do next

As part of making your will, or revising an existing will, you will likely meet with a lawyer or a notary public. In order to leave a charitable gift through your will, it is important that you include the full legal name of the charity.

Our Legal Name: EYA ENVIRONMENTAL YOUTH ALLIANCE SOCIETY

Our Charitable Registration Number: 89289 7166 RR0001

The paragraphs below provide sample language which may be helpful to you and your lawyer as you make or revise your will.

Residual Bequest for Environmental Youth Alliance's future greatest needs:

I give to EYA Environmental Youth Alliance Society _____% of the residue of my estate to be used for the greatest needs of the Environmental Youth Alliance.

Bequest of a specific amount for Environmental Youth Alliance's future greatest needs:

I give to EYA Environmental Youth Alliance Society the sum of $_____ from my estate to be used for the greatest needs of the Environmental Youth Alliance.

Note: While a gift for our greatest needs allows us to direct your gift to the priority needs of the Environmental Youth Alliance at the time your estate gift is received; if you prefer to designate your gift to a specific program, please discuss your wishes with us so as to ensure your intentions are clearly communicated. As well, since it is difficult to predict future circumstances, we recommend you include the following “power to vary” paragraph in your Will.

Specific designation:

I give to EYA Environmental Youth Alliance Society _____% of the residue of my estate to be used for _____ at the Environmental Youth Alliance.

Power to Vary:

If in the opinion of the Board of Directors of EYA Environmental Youth Alliance Society, it should become impossible, inadvisable, or impractical to use this gift for the specified purposes indicated in my will, then the Board may in its discretion use the gift to the best advantage of Environmental Youth Alliance, keeping in mind my original wishes.
